May 26th, 2020 - an oil lamp is an object used to produce light continuously for a period of time using an oil based fuel source. The use of oil lamps began thousands of years ago and continues to this day although not monly anymore. Oil lamps are a form of lighting and were used as an alternative to candles before the use of electric lights starting in 1780. The Argand lamp quickly replaced other oil lamps.

May 24th, 2020 - The ancient Roman Empire spanned three continents and lasted over four hundred years. Numerous Roman Antiquities survive today of which oil lamps and glass vessels are probably the most recognisable. The Romans left behind numerous monuments, but items of daily use are often the most fascinating.
